April Edition

Above all things let us never forget that mankind constitutes one great brotherhood; all born to encounter suffering and sorrow, and therefore bound to sympathize with each other. –Albert Pike

This month was the Pi Beta Phi's annual Lips for Literacy contest. It was only natural that the gentlemen of KDR should clean house; we placed first in the contest with the ZTA girls coming in second, we won the penny war by donating the most money, and Mat Taylor won the speed reading competition. It was a good night. Mad props go out to Brothers Messer and Fleming for coming up with the Wizard of Oz idea and putting this together with only three days of practice!

Epsilon Chapter has two new Pledges!

Danny Dale Thurston III is on the left.

That's Jose Gallardo Ponce on the right.

They take their test this Friday (April 29th).

Wish them luck!

BOYS & GIRLS CLUB

Epsilon Chapter, ever caring for their philanthropy, held a lock in with the boys and girls club on the 23rd. This was when we presented them with the check from Miss Blue and Gold, the one for $900. They were very excited, and fun times were had by all.

Regional Conclave was held at Epsilon on the weekend of the 16th. Epsilon came together with Eta chapter and Theta chapter to discuss what makes a good chapter and how we can improve ourselves as a fraternity.

Greek Week was last week (began April 18th). Though the brothers of Epsilon gave it a good college try, we unfortunately came in last, with Lambda Chi Alpha takking the win. We'll get 'em next year.

Brother Bretz, the current Faculty Relations Chairman, reinstated KDR's Eggstavaganza event. The Saturday of Easter weekend brothers hid eggs throughout the Chapel (the weather was bad) and invited faculty to bring their young ones. Several professors showed up, even President Moseley with his grandkids.
